ATASH KADEH NEWS

By: Persis Behramsha

February 2022 has already rolled on by and spring is now around the corner. Despite cold temperatures, rain or shine, our Atash Kadeh has stayed open every single day. We were reminiscing the Texas Freeze last year in February and still in awe of our Mobeds Maneck Sidhwa and Pervez Gonda who somehow drove to the Atash Kadeh to tend to our Holy Fire. Kudos to them then, and continuing Kudos to them now, for their ever-willing attitude to serve at any time.

Our sponsors for the upcoming Behram Roj Jashan for March are the families of: Nargis & Homi Cooper, Tehmi & Firdaus Dastoor, Mahrukh & Rohintan Deputy, Zenobia & Jal Guzdar, Roshan & Yezdi Engineer and Yasmin & Rustom Engineer. Thank you sponsors – you continue to show up and support this wonderful tradition of the Behram Roj Jashan. We cannot thank all of you enough!

We will be celebrating Navroze and plan on having a Jashan at the Atash Kadeh to welcome the New Year and Spring. More information will follow soon.

We will be adjusting to Daylight Saving Time soon and possibly making a few changes to the prayer timings. Our weekend Zoom Boye will continue since we have folks joining us from out of town. As a reminder, for those that cannot physically attend any prayers, our Mobeds will Zoom any prayers for your convenience. We do urge you to visit as often as you can, so you can feel the serenity our Atash Kadeh provides. We are blessed to have visitors from so many places who are keen on stopping by to pay respects to our Holy Fire. Do let your family and friends know that everyone is welcome, and they can join in the prayers from any part of the world.

Our Sponsored Behram Roj Jashan calendar is filling up quickly this year. We still have the following months open:

Friday July 1, 2022
Sunday September 4, 2022
Tuesday October 4, 2022
Thursday November 3, 2022
Saturday December 3, 2022

Wednesday March 23, 2022, is open for the Avan Mahino Avan Roj Parab celebration Jashan.

Saturday September 3, 2022, is available for Farvardin Mahino Farvardin Roj Farvardegan Jashan.

Please do consider donating to help with the ongoing maintenance of our Atash Kadeh so we can continue to serve our community in Houston and beyond. Ask us about adopting Monthly Utilities.

Hope to see many more smiling faces at the Atash Kadeh.

YOUTH GROUP REPORT

By Roshni Chikhliwala

On behalf of Youth Group Members and Officers

On February 19th through 20th, 2022, the youth group participated in a joint lock-in with the middle group. We participated in multiple activities and entertainment and had a great bonding experience. A special note of thanks to the following folks: Jasmine Mistry, who generously went out of her way to organize this event for both the middle and the youth to enjoy along with their parents, and to our Sunday school teachers who go out of their way to make it a pleasurable experience. On the 19th we also visited the food bank where we worked to clean areas and packed boxes for the homeless.

Thank you to all the youth parents for their support in all our endeavors.

Finally, a big thank you to our Mentors, Teachers, and the Youth Group Officers and members.

2. What you will do to give back to the ZAH community after returning from the Congress?

The following three Youth/Young adults qualified for this Subsidy.

GOLDEN GROUP GET TOGETHER

SALONI PARGAONKAR

LET'S GO TO A MOVIE – GOLDEN GROUP

By Jehanbux Mehta

How we have longed for those days, a mere 60+ years ago, when on a Saturday afternoon we would be off to Metro, Eros or Paradise to take in a matinee to see the latest filum at a reduced rate. Be it a romantic comedy, a Cecil de-Mille epic with a cast of thousands or a Hindi tear-jerker at which the emotional among us would be equipped with face towels to wipe red eyes, the movie would be talked about till replaced by another the following Saturday.

One such afternoon was reenacted by the Golden Group on Saturday, February 26. It was not in a crowded cinema hall but in the comfort of the Pervez Rustomji Hall in our very own ZAH Centre. It cost us a whopping $10 per person, a far cry from the few saved annas of “those” days, but it came with a tummy-filling lunch of snacks prepared by Naushad. Not a bad deal, what?

The movie was “My Father’s Violin”, a Turkish tale, dubbed in English with sub-titles. You could see from the faces at the end that it had touched the hearts of the viewers. The performance by all actors, especially the little girl, was simply superb. Our many thanks to Khushrav Nariman who took time off to screen the movie.

Snacks were served during intermission in the Atrium by the Helping Hands who sacrificed seeing the film by bringing the items from Naushad’s store and serving them nice and warm. A chicken-jalapeno roll, veg pattise, cutlet and cholay; could one have asked for more? Tea was taken after the movie ended, piping hot tea, prepared by the Hands with ravo and cookies, compliments of Sillie.

The weather that day was very cold and dreary, made more uncomfortable by intermittent rain. But that did not deter the 23 persons who had signed up for the event. After all, how often do we have the opportunity to meet in a group! True that the short interval and after tea period was not enough to share the stored up gupsup, but mingling was worth it.

NAVJOTE

Ervads Bomanshah Sanjana & Khushroo Vimadalal officiated the ceremony.

WZCC EVENT - "SENIOR HOUSING AND OTHER REAL ESTATE PROJECTS IN HOUSTON"

A very interesting and informative session on real estate projects and investment opportunities was presented by Mr. Nick Dhanani of the Dhanani Private Equity Group on February 17.

There were approximately 65 attendees who enjoyed hearing about how Mr. Dhanani started his career as a night cashier at a gas station, and slowly built his very expansive portfolio of real estate assets, with hundreds of investors participating in his developments. One of those projects is a senior housing development, which was of keen interest to the participants in the session.

Mr. Dhanani also discussed how his company differentiates itself from others by providing a high degree of transparency to its investors, and donating to charities when a project meets a certain earnings threshold.

WZCC is in the process of organizing additional educational and informative sessions for our community.

ASHA'S UNIVERSAL ORDER IN THE UNIVERSE – HOMAGE UNTO AHURA MAZDA – Dr. Dastur M N Dhalla

Life upon earth reveals a smooth and graceful and an all round ordered movement. Nature has its seasonal rhythms. Spring and summer, autumn and winter, with their seasonal succession of changes, take their unvarying course. The tides rise and fall punctually. The dawn and morn and noon and evening and night go their uninterrupted daily round. The dying day gives birth to the night. The night hangs its myriad of silvery lamps to lighten the darkness. The dawn breaks to resurrect the day and the day goes the perennial round of its birth. The heavens and their glittering hosts, the sun and the moon and the stars and the planets march at a regulated pace. Immutable are the laws that govern the movements of nature and preserve its unflinching regularity. A stable order ensures the existence of the universe.

Asha is the upholder of a moral order in the inner world of man. Human life is lived the best when man's relations with his neighbours, his duty towards his fellowmen and towards the heavenly beings are regulated according to Asha's moral order of righteousness. Help me to establish order in my inner world, Ahura Mazda, thou who art the source of all order and law. May concord and not discord, order and not disorder, righteousness and not wickedness always prevail in my inner world. May Asha Vahishta, Best Righteousness, be the upholder of my life, now and forever.
