ZAH Library's 23rd Annual Gala

The much-awaited annual gala of the ZAH Library Committee was held on November 11 and 12 when ZAH members had the opportunity to listen to two distinguished speakers on a vital part of our history.

In her welcome remarks, Aban Rustomji remarked that this was the 23rd yearly event organized by the ZAH Library Committee and FIRES. Arzan Wadia, President of FEZANA, praised ZAH Library and FIRES as a unique "National Archive" of the entire Zoroastrian community in North America. This was the third time this year in 2022 that Arzan had come down to Houston to support the community's events. Percy Katrak, President of ZAH, mentioned that the ZAH Library book collection is over 900, and has a permanent display case for the Dr. Dasturji Dhalla collection.

Meheryar Rivetna, who was instrumental in bringing Dr. Amighi to Houston introduced and welcomed her.

Janet Kestenberg Amighi

Dr. Amighi, our featured speaker, is an anthropologist and author of two very interesting books. She has done a lot of scholarly research on the challenges faced by Zoroastrians in Iran after the fall of the Sasanian Empire. With first-hand knowledge through her stay in Iran and her interviews with Zoroastrians of Iran, she has pieced together an account of what happened to our forefathers after the Parsis left Iran and sailed to India to escape persecution.

Following the Arab invasion of Iran in the seventh century, Zoroastrians, along with other non-Muslims, were subject to numerous restrictions and discriminatory practices in their daily lives. They were afraid, humiliated, and identified as "unclean". Over the years, through the Constitution Revolution of Iran (1905 – 1911), and many regime changes, Zoroastrians have been alternately threatened and revered. Today, again, with extreme Islamists in power, Zoroastrians have felt threatened and have emigrated from Iran reducing their numbers from 25,000 to only 10,000. The remaining Zoroastrians are avoiding all confrontation and withdrawing into their own safer enclaves. Dr. Amighi, in her fascinating presentation, held the audience spellbound as she took them through a fascinating journey into the roots of our unusual history.

After a vote of thanks to Dr. Amighi, Arzan Wadia, President of FEZANA gifted $15,000 to ZAH towards the North American Congress to be held in Houston at the end of December 2024. Accepting the gift were Percy Katrak (President of the ZAH Executive Committee), Aderbad Tamboli and Kayo Sidhwa (co-chairs of the 2024 Congress).

Banafsheh Mondegarian

A related theme was covered in the second presentation after lunch on Saturday, featuring our own Banafsheh Mondegarian. Banafsheh spent the first 25 years of her life in Kerman, with Farsi as her first language, picking up her Bachelor of Arts degree from Azad University in Kerman. Born in Kerman in 1983, five years after the Iranian Revolution, living in Iran for her as a Zoroastrian practicing in an Islamic country was enormously difficult. Through those difficult years, when her faith in religion wavered because of the discrimination and humiliation she faced as a child, she was constantly reminded by her family of her forefathers who had to escape the city and live in caves and other hiding places to keep their religion and the fire going. Today, Iranians prefer to think of themselves as Persians and not as Arabs, and they do not even approve of people who talk Arabic. The situation is in a state of constant turmoil and even Muslims would be proud to get back to their Persian roots. Ms. Mondegarian, in her folksy friendly talk, kept the audience interested and enthralled.

Art Exhibit

Alongside this exciting event was an Art Exhibition showcasing the astonishing talents of our members. In this first art exhibit of our talented community members, 17 artists displayed 2 of their favorite art pieces. All kinds of art - oil paintings, mixed media, cross-stitch embroidery, woodwork and models - were featured all around the Rustomji Room and the Library.

Some of the contributors were called out by Aban and a token of appreciation was presented to each artist. She thanked Edul Chikhliwala, Yezdi Engineer, and Vehishta Kaikobad who worked to display the artwork and models in an attractive way. The attendees wandered through the exhibits and marveled at the variety and quality of the artwork that was on display. This was a fitting end to two days of an enlightening, exciting, and enjoyable event – a feast for the brain, eyes, and stomach!

ATASH KADEH NEWS

By: Persis Behramsha

Is it almost year end 2022 already? Christmas and New Year are just around the corner? Wow, amazing, how time flies!!

Hope everyone had a lovely get together for Thanksgiving and, not asking... but pretty sure everyone is 'stuffed'.

Sharmeen & Jehangir Irani and family, we thank you very much for sponsoring the November Behram Roj Jashan. You asked which month needs a sponsor and took the first one that was open. So very much appreciated!

Remember that all community Jashans are for everyone who wishes to attend. Our sponsors make the time to host the Jashans, so please let's appreciate their kindness and thoughtfulness by attending as many as you can. If you have not attended one before, try one. You will have fun with the chitter-chatter after the Jashan when everyone congregates outside for the Chasni and Snacks. Dear Mobeds Maneck Sidhwa and Pervez Gonda, thank you for going out of your way to make sure you attend and pray during these Jashans.

Jamshed & Huffrish Irani, you both are awesome for continuing to bring Sukhar-Tachho-Loban so many times, and in such bulk. Words do not express how thankful we are to have a constant stock for our Atash Kadeh.

Feroze & Persis Sethna and family, you went out of your way to bring stacks of Sukhar on your recent visit to Houston. We are very appreciative of your thoughtfulness and thank you very much for your gracious donation.

Pervin & Vispi Sagar, you always remember to carry some Sukhar back every time you visit India. For all the small stacks that have added up from all your trips – thank you.

We recently lost a very good Atash Kadeh friend – our dear Nilufer Darukhanavala, who was an ardent supporter or who made sure that no Behram Roj or Farvardegan Jashan went unsponsored. On numerous occasions, she relayed that if there was any instance where we could not find a sponsor; her family was ready to be the sponsor. We will miss her so very much. Rest In Peace, dear Nilufer.

Though this has been mentioned various times before, it is worth a repeat ever so often, that the Atash Kadeh loves to see new faces and loves to have as many community members participate. Its wide doors welcome everyone with open arms.

YOUTH GROUP REPORT

ZANT Lock-in – “Most fun I’ve had in a while!”

By: Mahtab B. Dastur and Natasha N. Dungor

“Zoroastrian Association of North Texas is excited to host our 2022 youth camp during the upcoming Thanksgiving break from Saturday November 19th at 10:00am to Sunday November 20th at 1:30pm at the Zoroastrian Center of North Texas, 1605 Lopo Road, Flower Mound Texas, 75027.”

After several months of texting, emailing, and planning, Delnaaz Irani, the host of the ZANT lock-in sent an official invitation email formally inviting all to attend the lock-in, which was to begin promptly at 10:00 am. Of course, 10:00 am converted to the infamous Z-time zone, and the lock-in eventually began at around 11:00 am.

First the kiddos played an interactive bingo game in which they were to find other participants with characteristics on the bingo card aiming to find one person for each box. This was followed by the creation of teams, mascots, and a team presentation.

Competitive juices pumping, the teams then did an extremely exciting and active Scavenger Hunt prepared by ZANT Sunday school teacher Nina Kalianiwalla. After several mistakes, lots of confusion, yelling, and running, there were finally yelps of accomplishment and cheers of celebration. The Lalios had just won! Then everyone washed up and had delicious burgers, hot dogs, salad, fries, and juice for lunch prepared by Arnavaz Aunty Vakharia (endearingly called Mamaji) and Spenta Uncle. Lunch was followed by more active competitive games outside.

Although it was well below 50 degrees, no one was cold, instead sweating from the activity of playing basketball, shooting goals, running races, and passing footballs. When everyone went inside, they found there were more games to play. These games were innovative and required strategy and patience, such as figuring out how to move people from one side of a wooden plank to the other, without stepping off the plank. Later, after the parents arrived, everyone went to the ZANT dadgah, where Porus and Burzin Balsara performed the boye ceremony, prayer vibrations ringing while the room was lit by the fire. Everyone prayed, or watched in silence, and then paid their respects to the fire afterwards. Finally it was time for mouthwatering dinner prepared by Mumaji and Keshwar Aunty, with dishes such as curry rice. Then Delnaaz Aunty announced that there would be a karaoke and dancing competition – a delightful surprise to both the parents and the campers! Following lots of cheering, jumping, dancing, and singing (or more accurately yelling), the parents began to leave and the children set up their sleeping arrangement and got ready for bed. However, the night was still young, and the kids had the most fun keeping Delnaaz Aunty and Tanaaz Aunty awake to well past 1 am, with random dancing and singing, carom games, and table tennis.

Lights were finally shut at around 2 am, with the last of the kids falling asleep at 4 am (oops!).

The next morning, after waking up, getting ready, and having cereal, akuri, and muffins for breakfast, everyone participated in the traditional Huvarashtra Project that occurs at every ZANT lock-in. It is a service project, and this time was packaging bags of food for underprivileged kids who did not have access to food outside of what they received in school, for free. The student ambassador of this program was one of the campers – Yazad Kekobad. After the project, there were several hours of down time, in which some campers played outside, some watched football, and other formed groups and talked about their excessive water usage from taking long showers, while the adults argued, not understanding how someone can take an hour in the shower (it happens, people!).

Then the parents arrived, and together everyone ate lunch, once again yummy foods including kheemo. The time finally came, where everyone had to say their goodbyes, and after an hour of “come on!” and “five more minutes”, campers and parents alike began leaving. Most campers fell asleep in the car, on the way home, no doubt dreaming of all the fun they had, and looking forward to next year’s lock-in. I know I certainly am!

An enormous thank you to Delnaaz Aunty, Spenta Uncle, Mumaji, Keshwar Aunty (Dallas, TX), Xerxes Uncle (Irvine, CA), Tanaaz Aunty, Edul Uncle (Houston, TX), and all the volunteers who made this lock-in so incredibly enjoyable!!!

PICTIONARY
Game for the Golden Group

PICTIONARY - THE NAME OF THE GAME

By: Jehanbux Mehta

One would imagine that we, of the Golden Group, would be content spending weekend afternoons sprawled on the sofa trying to figure out what's afoot on the TV or stretched out in an armchair attempting to read the newspaper or considering taking the third nap of the day. Sorry, but that's not how it is. We happen to be quite an active group. Always on the go, always planning to do something.

It was, therefore, no surprise when several members approached the Group's Helping Hands to arrange something different from bingo, games and movies. "Let's paint the town red this time" they suggested. We obliged, but not in the way you would imagine but with a pleasant twist. Back to school it was then on November 05: easel, drawing paper and colored sharpies. Pictionary was what it was with Lyla Daroga at the reins.

Skeptical we were at first. After all not many had played the game before; leave aside the several who had never even heard of the name. But, anxieties were cast aside as soon as the game started. It was like being in school again, but enjoying it, with teacher Lyla guiding the pupils. Groans from the participants when off the track and shouts of glee on solving the puzzle. Children, children!

Golden Group

It was a beautiful afternoon as members gathered at our favorite hunting ground, the ZAH Centre, made even more beautiful as each attendee smilingly coughed up $13 for snacks from Naushad and a load of fruits painstakingly purchased, washed and cut by Anita Kavina for us all to enjoy. A sweet Spanish red, compliments of a member couple, was greeted with cheers before JR called the "meeting to order", requesting all to maintain a minute of silence in remembrance of our very old and dear members Nergish Sethna and Fali Engineer who had passed away in recent months. Anita Kavina then informed the members of having been successful in procuring a bus specially equipped for seniors, compliments of Harris County, for a trip to Galveston on Saturday, December 10 and the arrangements made to have lunch there at the Parsi favorite, Benno's, before a romp in a park.

The school bell rang out loud and clear at 4:00 p.m. Reluctantly, it was time to leave, with doggie bags in tow in some hands. Volunteers aplenty to tidy up the premises, carting the trash to the dumpster and making sure that everybody had hobbled out before shutting the doors and activating the alarm system.

SONIA BEHRANA RASH

Sonia Behrana Rash, daughter of one of the initial ZAH Members, Mehelli & Zenobia Behrana, was elected as Fort Bend County's Justice of the Peace, in Precinct 3 in the November 2022 election and will take office on January 1, 2023.

Sonia has always believed in putting people over politics and doing what's right for everyone. Some of her plans include convenient online hearings, community outreach programs and high school and college internship programs.

Sonia attended High School for Performing Arts and sang soprano at some of the ZAH events. With a Bachelor's in political science and a Master's in economics, Sonia went on to pursue her studies in law, and is an Honors graduate of Texas Southern University's Thurgood Marshall School of Law. She came out of Law School with a passion for helping the underdog and began her law career as an associate with The Hall Law Firm where she dedicated herself to working for civil rights, personal injury, and complex litigation cases. During her free time Sonia was actively involved as the vice president of Fort Bend's LULAC 2911 chapter, 3rd vice president of Fort Bend's NACCP and on the board of directors of a mentorship program called SMILE. She is proud to be a member of the League of Women Voters of Texas, Texas Democrat Women and Lone Star Exchange Club of Fort Bend. This year Sonia was recognized for her service to the community and received the prestigious "Presidential Award."
