BOOK REVIEW - Of Light and Shadow by Tanaz Bhathena

By: Aban Rustomji

Tanaz Bhathena, the winner of the Inaugural Bapsi Sidhwa Literary Prize, has a new novel about magic, mayhem, love, and betrayal—the story of a bandit and a prince who change each other in unexpected ways. Please check this book out from our library or order a copy from amazon.com

When they don't give us our birthright, we steal it.

Roshan Chaya is out for justice. Abandoned by her parents at birth and adopted by the kingdom of Jwala's most notorious bandit before his brutal murder, she is now leader of the Shadow Clan, a gang of farmers-turned-bandits impoverished by the provincial governor's atrocities and corruption. Roshan's goal is to avenge her adoptive father and earn back rights and dignity for her people.

Prince Navin has always felt like an outcast. Second in line for the throne, he has never been close to his grandmother, Queen Bhairavi of Jwala. When a night out drinking with friends leads to his capture by the infamous Shadow Clan, Navin schemes to befriend Roshan and use her to escape. His ploy, however, brings Navin closer to the corruption and poverty at the heart of Roshan's province, raising questions about its governor and Navin's own family.

To further complicate things, the closer Roshan and Navin get, the harder it becomes to fight their growing attraction. But how can they trust each other when the world as they know it starts to fall apart? Set in a magical world inspired by the badlands of 17th-century India, this epic fantasy novel is packed with political tensions, dangerous schemes, and swoon-worthy romance that asks the age-old question: can love conquer all?

ATASH KADEH NEWS

By: Persis Behramsha

During Spring time, Texas brings us the natural beauty of wildflower colors to brighten our lives. Hope many of you were able to catch a good glimpse of these wonderful colors.

April began with the Sponsored Behram Roj festivities, hosted by families of Roshan & Percy Behramsha, Aban Chhor, Yasmin & Sheroy Haveliwala, Jasmin & Percy Katrak and Tanaz Sunavala. Thank you to each of you for sponsoring and also for the yummy snacks which were thoroughly enjoyed by all. It is great to enjoy the happy chatter in the foyer while meeting and greeting everyone after the Jashan.

We also celebrated the Adar Mahino Adar Roj Parab Jashan which was sponsored once again by Nazneen & Kershaw Khumbatta and family.

CARNIVAL – YOUTH GROUP TABLE

Mobed Noshir Khumbatta made sure to participate in the prayers and gave a brief highlight of what the Parab means, and how it is celebrated. Adar is the divinity that presides over Fire. It is the Giver of Light and the Giver of Life. Mobeds Khushrav Nariman and Bahmanshah Sanjana also joined Mobeds Pervez Gonda and Maneck Sidhwa for the prayers. Thank you to the family for your generous sponsorship and donation.

Since our Atash Kadeh has a 24-hour wood burning fire a lot of maintenance is constantly required to keep all components functional.

Our special thanks go out to Yezdi Engineer for taking on the enormous task of cleaning the Kebla Exhaust. We value all the time and effort you put in, to coordinate all the pre and post cleaning setup and also for conducting any additional work that needed attention over the Kebla Dome. We thank you for making sure that whatever was required, was completed properly. Yezdi, your efforts do not go unnoticed. We thank you and Jamshed Dudha for your help with this project and we know we can count on you to support our Atash Kadeh always. We also take this opportunity to thank Rustum Challa for taking care of maintenance issues promptly. We appreciate that you constantly check on the Atash Kadeh and take care of whatever is necessary.

We have now installed an Audio System to enable everyone to hear the prayers or speakers in the Prayer Hall as well as the Main Hall. For this, we thank our ever-generous donors Feroze and Shernaz Bhandara for donating the full cost of the Audio System. In addition, we thank Khushrav Nariman, Aderbad Tamboli and Darius Tamboli for installing the complete system which is now ready for use.

NAMC AGM is set for June 24 -25, 2023. Hope to see many of you for the lecture series.

Khushrav Nariman (Chairperson), Feroze Bhandara, Shernaz Bhandara, Rohintan Deputy, Persis Behramsha.

YOUTH GROUP

By: Roshni Chikhliwala

On April 9th, 2023, the youth group participated in the Annual ZAH Carnival. The youth group sold Beef Samosas, Beef Seek/Sheesh kabobs, and Chicken Cutlets. We made approximately $365 net profit.

A special note of thanks to the following folks: Khursheed Hormuzdi, who generously went out of her way to order and pick up the food items, and Dastur family who sponsored the samosas for us. On the day of the Carnival, the youth group ran the stalls and also sold lamb chops. Thank you to all the youth parents for their support and donations.

Please come out for the Youth Fundraiser on July 22nd. Finally, a big thank you to our Mentors, Teachers, and Youth Group Officers and members.

GOLDEN GROUP NEWS

BREATH OF FRESH AIR

The younger ones may not have ever heard of it, but we goldies would remember the song which promised flowers in bloom in May after the April showers. But this year, it was in March that it really poured but that was truly god sent as that brought out the beautiful wildflowers around Brenham in early April.

Announcements for outings on April 01 are usually not taken seriously. But on that day Mother Nature played no pranks as the daring among the Golden Group ventured out for a breath of fresh air. To be away from the nauseous air, the horrendous traffic and the madding crowd, if even for just one day, was glorious relief. The sun was out and with a cool breeze comforting us, it was a day made for us.

Three cars with eager riders made off at 10:45 a.m. from ZAH Center to Brenham, 70 miles away. On the sides of the unclogged highway after crossing Chappell Hill, could be seen patches of wildflowers. Pleasing to the eyes but nowhere close to what we were to see later. Walmart on the other side of the town was a welcome comfort stop after 75 minutes of non-stop driving. Here, another car of four who had driven directly to the meeting place joined the others. It was now time to go on the floral safari, driving down the route charted by me. First, behind the supermarket where the largest field of bluebonnets awaited us. Smiles aplenty for the picture ops. Members were advised to stay on trodden paths so as not to trample the flowers and, more importantly, not to disturb the rattlesnakes. Believe me: we have encountered one on one of our trips.

Next, into the 'wilderness' – a drive down narrow winding streets past ranches to view the gorgeous wildflowers, in particular the orange Indian Paint Brush, displaying their beauty in abundance never before seen before on the several annual pilgrimages made by Sillie and me. Just as well we had planned to go by cars instead of by bus as that gave us the freedom to stop at will for the many forays in the vast fields and, of course, photographs.

A late lunch was taken at the rustic Lone Star Southern Grille beyond Brenham for darn good Western chow, enough to fill not only your appetite but also a doggie bag. There's a helluva lot to see and do in this area: picnicking at the Chappell Hill Lavender Farm, peach picking seated in a horse drawn wagon, the Blue Bell ice-cream factory, farmlands in Washington County with a stop at historic Independence where in 1836 Texas parted from Mexico and viewing from atop the bund the huge Sommerville Lake. We will have to leave these for yet another day as each is a full day's excursion. For now, it was time to head back home to reminisce the wonderful day we had.
