From the Treasurer's Desk

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that you can assist ZAH acquire donations at NO COST to you?

As you all know, we always try to look for innovative ideas/avenues to raise funds and acquire donations for our Center. As you know, we have started an initiative by introducing AmazonSmile to y'all. AmazonSmile is a simple and automatic way for you to support ZAH every time you shop, at no cost to you. When you shop at smile.amazon.com, you’ll find the exact same low prices, vast selection and convenient shopping experience as Amazon.com including the Prime feature, with the added bonus that Amazon will donate a portion of the purchase price to ZAH. The AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the purchase price from your eligible AmazonSmile purchases.

So dear community members, whenever you think of shopping on Amazon please remember to shop on AmazonSmile at http://smile.amazon.com/ch/74-1945923 or https://smile.amazon.com/ and support ZAH. This is a really quick and easy way to take full advantage of what we are eligible like other 501 © 3 organizations.

LIBRARY REPORT

By Jangoo Mistry

Upcoming Library Annual Gala Event – Register now!

Dr. Sarah Stewart is coming to ZAH!

Over the years, The ZAH Library Committee has presented speakers and organized events that have been recognized for their educational and entertainment value. Other Zoroastrian Associations follow our activities with great interest and look to emulate us. In keeping with this tradition, we are proud to bring a world-class scholar for a landmark event when Dr. Sarah Stewart comes to our Center for the annual gala event on November 1 and 2.

Dr. Stewart is a lecturer in Zoroastrianism at the University of London’s School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS), which is the world’s leading institution for the study of Asia, Africa and the Middle East. She is co-editor of the five-volume series Idea of Iran with Edmund Herzig. More recently, Sarah was the project director and curatorial advisor for the much-acclaimed exhibition: "The Everlasting Flame: Zoroastrianism in History and Imagination" running in the Brunei Gallery of the University of London. This exhibition was the first of its kind to give visual expression to Zoroastrian history, culture, and religion. It also explored the wide reach of the religion in the ancient world and its influence on the major religions of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. The exhibition was so-well received that Sarah has also been invited by the Indian Government to display it in Delhi. Sarah has edited a richly illustrated book based on that exhibition. Dr. Sarah Stewart is also the author of numerous books and papers, and a consultant specializing in India and Iran.

We are truly honored that Sarah Stewart has agreed to cross the Atlantic to be with us. We are planning a memorable event spread over two days – all day on Saturday, November 1, with a program that includes presentations, lunch, dinner and entertainment. As always, the two lectures in the morning and afternoon are free. To take advantage of Sarah’s visit, we are also offering our community an informal get-together for a couple of hours on Sunday morning at the Center, where we will have a chance to have a “conversation” with Sarah. Please refer to the attached ZAH flyer for further details.

Later, on Sunday evening, The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston has scheduled an event at their location for Dr. Sarah Stewart to reach a wider audience with a special presentation. Their announcement reads: "The story of Zoroastrianism today is one of the interweaving of three traditions: (1) the Iranian tradition that gave birth to the religion, (2) the Parsi tradition established in India once Iran had become a Muslim land, and (3) the Western—predominantly academic—tradition that emerged when Zoroastrian religious texts became the focus of Oriental Studies in the late 18th and 19th centuries. Sarah Stewart will explore these three traditions within the different various historical contexts presented in the exhibition, and shows how select works in the MFAH collection reflect Zoroastrian thought and influence. A reception to meet the speaker follows the lecture.” Please refer to the MFAH flyer for details on that Sunday evening event at the Museum.

It is not often that we get a chance like this to listen and learn from so distinguished an authority on our religion’s glorious history. We urge you not to miss this opportunity. Time is running out! We are expecting a great deal of interest and a large turnout. No RSVPs are necessary for the Sunday morning function at the Center, or the Sunday evening event at the MFAH. But please RSVP on ZAH website or email Yasmin Pavri (yspavri@yahoo.com) as soon as possible only for the Saturday program to help us better plan for the event.

ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE REPORT
By the ZAH Entertainment Committee

The Fasli Mehrgan and Maediozarem Gahambar
The Fasli Mehrgan and Maediozarem Gahambar took place on Sunday, October 5, 2014 at the ZAH Center and was attended by 260 persons. The hall was beautifully decorated with yellow and white table cloths and pretty flowers. ZAH received estimated $2,100/- (includes 22% on expenses) from this event.

Generous donations were received from Mrs. Shahnaz Nasrabad & Mr. Shadpoor Farkish in memory of their beloved son Shahab and Mrs. Parvin & Mr. Mehraband Dinyarian in memory of Parvin’s father towards the Gahambar. Thanks very much to the Farkish and Dinyarian families and all our generous donors listed below without whom the gahambar lunch price would be much higher.

The prayers were conducted by our Ervads Bahmanshah Sanjana, Khushrav Nariman, Maneck Sidhwa, Shapur Pavri, Bahrom Firozgary, Kyrus Buchia, Noshir Khumbatta, Vispi Katrak and Yazad Sidhwa. The prayers were followed by a lovely talk given by Ervad Kyrus Buchia explaining the meaning of this Gahambar. ZAH EC Chair, Aderbad Tamboli thanked the Ervads, the volunteers, the Entertainment Committee and the generous donors for their kind gesture. Later, Aban Rustomji presented the Fezana Academic Scholarship Awards for 2014. Congratulations to Farzad Sunavala for the Purvez and Aban Rustomji Endowment Scholarship and Ziba Colah for the Banooabai and Maneckshaw Kapadia endowment scholarship.

Chasni of delicious malido, fresh fruits and mixed nuts was enjoyed by all. The attendees raved the mouthwatering Goat Meat Dhansak, Turkey Kabobs, and Kachubars for lunch prepared by our very own Naushad Mehta and Rustom Setna. Everyone enjoyed the desi Kesar Pista and Malai kulfi for dessert with chocolate and shortbread cookies.

Last but not the least, the Entertainment Committee and the ZAH EC would like to thank the Web Team, donors, attendees and all the precious volunteers who helped before, during and after the event. Peace and Happiness to all.

Navroze Function

Our Navroze function held on Saturday, Aug. 23rd, at the ZAH Center was attended by 330 people. A truly traditional “sagan nu” atmosphere was achieved with chawk, torans and festive décor in the main hall and atrium. ZAH received $3,300/- (includes 22% on expenses) from this event.

Our emcee for the evening, Farrokh Firozgary did a great job of starting the program on time and welcoming the guests. Homi Davier coordinated the Congress 2000 Legacy Award distribution. He called on Dr. Parvin Behroozi Bagherpour , Associate Vice Chancellor at the Houston Community College to present awards to Natalya Haveliwala and Farzad Sunavala. The recipients were commended for excellence in scholastic studies, extra-curricular activities and contribution to the community. Details of these awards were covered in the August Manashni. The High School graduates were also given awards on behalf of ZAH. The names of the graduates were published in the past Manashni. Congratulations to our graduates and Legacy Award winners. You make us proud.

The entertainment program started with our celebratory song “Mubarak, Mubarak, Mubarak” and everyone joining in “Chhaiye Hame Zarhoosht”. Farrokh then introduced our entertainers for the evening by special arrangement from...
California: Tarkash Entertainment, Unlimited: featuring Nauzad Sadry and Kainaz Pandit with DJ Zubin Chichgar. They sang old and new Hindi and English songs and kept the dance floor packed all evening with the enthused crowd. At the request of Roshan Engineer and Nazneen Khumbatta, several donor families contributed towards the expenses to make this entertainment possible at no extra cost to our attendees. These donations collected an extra $700/- for our ZAH.

For dinner, the guests enjoyed nuts and pakoras for appetizers, then the traditional Parsi dinner of sev, dahi, rotli, achaar, mori dal, rice, shrimp patio and murghi papeta. Thanks to Rieana and Hiraz Medhora for our catering order, and special thanks to our volunteers for the sev: Farzana Sidhwa, Pervin Sidhwa, Kati Tamboli and Becky Byramji; Freny Sanjana also provided a large tray of sev. Dessert was falooda cake by Naushad Mehta along with vanilla ice-cream.

Thanks to Sillie & Jehanbux Mehta for donating a large hamper full of Parsi goodies like dar ni pori, batasas, bhakhras, etc. ZAH received $432/- from this raffle. Thanks also to Edul and Tanaaz Chikhliwala and Aban Chhor for making beautiful torans for our front and side entrance and main hall doors. Thanks to Persis Behramsha for adorning the front and side entrances with pretty chawk patterns.

Our Web Team has now posted photos of this function on our website. Please check Photo Gallery and click on Navroze 2014 to enjoy them!

The Entertainment Committee thanks all the volunteers who helped in making this function a grand success. We would also like to thank the Web Team for making the RSVPs and Online Payment easy for our community. Here's wishing everyone peace and prosperity this Navroze and always!

YOUTH GROUP REPORT
By Friyana Sidhwa, Vice President - ZAH Youth Group

The focus of the ZAH Youth Group this year is community service for our ZAH Community members and for other Houstonians. One of the major initiatives we recently undertook was having a Blood Drive during our Gahambar day on October 5th, 2014. ZAH Youth Group partnered with Gulf Coast Regional Blood Center, who brought their Coach on Oct 5th from 10 am to 2:30 pm to conduct the blood drive in our parking lot.

We had a great turnout and almost 90% of the spots available were filled up with our over-enthusiastic community members wanting to donate. Overall, 32 donors decided to donate blood out of a maximum of 36 spots available. Out of those 32 donors, 26 of them were allowed to donate as the remaining 6 donors had either low iron count or traveled abroad or were under weight.

Some of the members wanted to donate twice to make space for those tasty kababs along with the delicious Dhansak that was being served whereas a few of them were invited to receive a couple of bottles- wink, wink! The Gulf Coast Regional Blood Center team commented that their expectations were to have 15 donors and was far exceeded by us as we got them 9 more donors. Besides, they wanted us to have these drives every 3-6 months. The ZAH Youth Group would like to thank our community for supporting this great cause and turning out in large numbers to donate blood. We would also like to thank all our Youth group members, parents, mentors and all others for assisting us with this initiative. Finally, we would like to thank the Entertainment Committee and our Executive Committee for allowing us to conduct the drive along with the Gahambar function!!!

MISCELLANEOUS

PRAYER ROOM
A few of our community members took it upon themselves to spend a weekend, cleaning and painting our prayer room at the Center.

The ZAH Community conveys its thanks to the father/son duo Percy Master, Zubin Master as well as Percy Katrak for taking the time and tremendous effort to refresh our prayer room.
WILL YOU HOST A DINNER
ZAH is looking for 25 Zarathushti Families to Host a Dinner for approximately 10-12 guests on Thursday, November 13, 2014, for the Annual Dinner Dialogues. This is an opportunity to share our rich faith and traditions with a diverse group of Houstonians.
Please join ZAH and Interfaith Ministries, in this truly unique experience by opening your homes to host this dinner. If you are ready to sign up as a host, please register here. Please contact any of the following for more details:
Kaemerz Dotiwala – Phone: (713) 296-9497 ; Manek Nariman - Phone: (281) 313-2654 ; Yasmin Medhora - Phone: (713) 466-3908 ; Aban Rustomji - Phone: (281) 493-1275; Yasmin Pavri - Phone: (713) 599-1776

WORLD ZOROASTRIAN SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA AT THE NAZC LOS ANGELES
The Orchestra unites Zoroastrian musicians from far and wide to provide an unforgettable musical experience, under the baton of its Artistic Director, a professional conductor, Farobag Cooper of Chicago.
At the Congress, the Orchestra will also be conducted by ZAC's very own, Adil Mehta of Los Angeles. The repertoire will feature solos by Sopranos Meher Pavri and Tina Siganporia, and musicians Mahfrin Santoke (flute), Neville Bharucha (piano) and Sarosh Mistry (violin), among others.
A performance of this magnitude would not have been possible without the united efforts of many classical music enthusiasts in our community.
Don't miss the performance that is proof of the power of our theme: Faith and Unity! Register Now at this link

NIKI’S KITCHEN
Niki’s Kitchen is new in town and we caters food to Houston and neighboring cities.
My love and passion for cooking was developed by helping my mom chopping and cleaning from the age of 10 and learning from the very basics. I started cooking full fledged dishes for house parties giving my own touch from the age of 15.
Our family and friends in NY & NJ loved our food and hospitality at our summer and Christmas parties in Long Island, NY and were told we should be doing this as a side business as my food was very authentic. Eric has worked at most of the top Indian and Chinese restaurants for over 15 years in various positions and therefore we work great as a team from start to finish.
We cater from 10-60 ppl, and take tray orders too.
I specialize in Parsi delicacies like Parsi Pulao, Patra Ni Machi, Farcha, cutlets, Kolmi na kababs, lagan nu custard and bread pudding.
I cook various cuisines ranging from Parsi, Punjabi, Gujarati, Italian, Mexican and American.
Niki's Kitchen has catered B'day parties, house warming functions, Navjote functions, rehearsal dinners, Diwali and other festival functions at people's homes and various clubhouses.

PROGRAM
Saturday, Nov 1
10:00-10:30 Meet & Greet
10:30-11:30 The Everlasting Flame: Zoroastrianism in history and imagination

The Everlasting Flame: Zoroastrianism in history and imagination, was an exhibition held at the Brunei Gallery at the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS) in London, in 2013. It explored the history of Zoroastrianism, its culture and religion, as well as its influence on major religions of the world. It examined three traditions: the Iranian tradition that gave birth to the religion; the Parsi tradition established in India; and the tradition that emerged when Western scholars started examining Zoroastrian religious texts. This talk will focus on these three traditions within the different historical contexts presented in the exhibition.

The Everlasting Flame: Zoroastrianism in History and Imagination

Sun, Nov 02, 2014
4:30 p.m. – 6:30 p.m.

Presented by Sarah Stewart, lecturer in Zoroastrianism in the department of the study of religions.

Founded in Persia (modern day Iran) by Zarathushtra, Zoroastrianism may have been the world’s first monotheistic faith, and continues to the present day. The Everlasting Flame: Zoroastrianism in History and Imagination, an exhibition held in 2013 at the Brunei Gallery at the University of London’s SOAS was the first of its kind to give visual expression to Zoroastrian history, culture, and religion. It also explored the wide reach of the religion in the ancient world and its influence on the major religions of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam.

The story of Zoroastrianism today is one of the intertwining of three traditions: the Iranian tradition that gave birth to the religion, the Parsi tradition established in India once Iran had become a Muslim land, and the Western—predominantly academic—tradition that emerged when Zoroastrian religious texts became the focus of Oriental Studies in the late 18th and 19th centuries.

Sarah Stewart, organizing curator of the Everlasting Flame exhibition, explores these three traditions within the different various historical contexts presented in the exhibition, and shows how select works in the MFAH collection reflect Zoroastrian thought and influence. A reception to meet the speaker follows the lecture.
