LIBRARY REPORT

Annual Gala this Month
By Jango Mistry

The ZAH Library has had many annual galas over the last several years. Each and every one of them has been so successful that there is already a strong buzz for our upcoming gala later this month.

This year, the ZAH Library is proud to bring to you Dan Sheffield for a 2-day event on Friday, October 28 and Saturday, October 29. The theme of the annual gala is “Exploring Zoroastrian Identity”. As always, on Friday evening, we will have the informal Meet-and-Greet session with a potluck dinner. You are encouraged to bring with you a homemade dish to share and enjoy with others. This will be followed by two different presentations on Saturday morning and afternoon, details of which are in the attached flyer. Since we always have a lively question and answer session after each presentation, there will be time set aside at the end of the lectures for your comments and observations.

Dan Sheffield is a well-known scholar of Zoroastrianism, featured often in several publications, a prolific author of numerous papers, and a frequent guest lecturer around the world. His credentials are impeccable. A Ph.D. from Harvard in Near Eastern Languages and Civilizations has been followed by teaching and faculty positions at Harvard, University of Washington, and most recently, Princeton University. We are indeed fortunate and feel privileged to have such a distinguished and accomplished scholar in Houston with us.

Saturday luncheon will cost you $10 per person. But, if you don’t mind missing the delicious lunch, you can attend just the lecture part of the program for free. This event is expected to generate an unusual amount of interest and avid discussion. So please send your RSVPs to Arnavaz Sethna (ahsethna@yahoo.com, or 281-499-1832) before October 25. Your early confirmation will also help us in planning for meals and seating accommodation.

Please refer to the flyer for more information on the event, and put these dates on your calendar for an informative and exciting event that is not to be missed.

New Books

A new book, Threads of Continuity: Zoroastrian Life & Culture by Shernaz Cama has been gifted to our library by PARZOR.
This compendium published by Shernaz Cama of PARZOR for the recent exhibition in New Delhi, focuses on the philosophy and culture of the ancient Zoroastrian faith from its origins in Central Asia till the present. This philosophy became a part of the living heritage of the Zoroastrian community, both in India and Iran. The cross-cultural influences on the community in India are a fascinating study as well. We are indebted to Percy Master who so graciously hand-carried the 6-pound tome from India for us.

A delightful new addition to our collection is Wit and Wisdom: Pickings from the Parsee Punch by Mushirul Hasan. ‘The Parsee Punch’ made its mark as the only illustrated comic weekly paper in Bombay, back in the 19th century. Like the London Punch, it contained 24 to 36 pages full of humorous illustrations, and continued publication until the 1930s. Professor Mushirul Hasan is an internationally renowned historian, a prolific author and former Vice-Chancellor of Jamia Milia Islamia University in Delhi.

FASLI MEHRGAN AND MAEDIOZAREM GAHAMBAR

The Fasli Mehrgan and Maediozarem Gahambar was celebrated at the ZAH Center on Sunday, October 2, 2016 and was attended by estimated 212 persons (includes kids). ZAH received an estimated $900 (includes 22% on expense) from this event. Thanks very much to the donors listed below without whom the gahambar lunch price would have been much higher.

The hall was beautifully decorated with white table cloths, pretty flowers and tea light candles. The prayers were conducted by our Ervads Bahmanshah Sanjana, Barjor M. Dastur, Pervez Gonda, Fawad Irani, Khushrav Nariman, Shapur Pavri, Faraidoon Pundole, Maneck Sidhwa and Yazad Sidhwa. The prayers were followed by a lovely talk given by Ervad Bahmansha Sanjana explaining the importance of this Gahambar. A short prayer of well being was recited by Ervad Bahmanshah along with the congregation for a member who is sick.

ZAH EC Chair, Aderbad Tamboli thanked the Ervads, the volunteers, the Entertainment Committee and the donors for their kind gesture. Aderbad informed the community about the starting of the construction of Phase 3A shortly.

Chasni of nuts, fruits and malido was served. 2 large trays of fresh fruit was cut and donated by Jessica & Jamshed Dubash; 1 large tray of watermelon was donated by Tenaz Sunavala. The malido was prepared and donated by Avan Bhathena, Yasmin Medhora and Shireen Mehta. The attendees thoroughly enjoyed the delicious Goat Meat Dhansak and Kachubar/limboo for lunch prepared by our very own Naushad Mehta. The kabobs prepared by Gulmohar & Meheryar Bharucha at a short notice were yummy. Everyone enjoyed the ice cream and the chocolate mousse prepared and donated by Arzin & Sorab Italia. Arzin thanks Nali Desai & Khursheed Hormuzdi for helping her to prepare the large quantity of the chocolate mousse.

Last but not the least, the Entertainment Committee and the ZAH EC would like to thank the Web Team, donors, attendees and volunteers for their help. May God bless our wonderful community.

YOUTH REPORT

By Tanaya Behramsha - ZAH Youth Group Treasurer

The ZAH youth group is excited for the new year ahead. In the month of October our only event our Sunday school is on Oct. 9th at 11am.
In November we are looking forward to fun-filled weekend of Nov. 25th-26th for a joint lock-in with the ZANT youth. The youth is excited for this year's events and we hope to have the community's continued support!

Thank you!

BY Rustom Engineer

It began with a simple email from Ervad Soli Dastur of Florida, who wrote to some of us about Udvada’s Vada Dasturji Khursheed Dastoor’s visit to Dallas, Texas. This started a flurry of emails among Parsi Zarathushtis of Houston to see if the Dasturji could visit Houston as well. On behalf of the Zoroastrian Association of Houston (ZAH), a formal invitation to Dasturji Khursheed was quickly extended via Ervad Soli Dastur. In spite of the short notice and their tight schedule, the invitation was gracefully accepted by Dasturji and his wife Havovi.

Dallas is only about 4 hours’ drive from Houston and Dasturji’s cousin Ervad Yazdi Dastoor of Dallas, kindly offered to drive Dasturji and his wife Havovi to Houston. Here in Houston, there was no shortage of enthusiastic volunteers ready to welcome Dasturji to our hometown.

On Friday, September 9, 2016, Dasturji, Havovi and Yazdi arrived in the afternoon. Later in the evening, Dasturji was given a quick tour of the Zarathushti Heritage and Cultural Center (ZHCC) by Aderbad Tamboli, Chair of the ZAH. Over 150 ZAH Members and well-wishers were in attendance. Prior to starting the main event, the attendees got an opportunity to participate in an informal meet-n-greet session and light refreshment.

The main program started with a benediction by Dasturji Khursheed accompanied by ZAH’s two youngest Ervads, Yazad Sidhwa and Neville Kanga.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of a proclamation by Honorable Mr. Sylvester Turner, the Mayor of Houston, proclaiming September 9, 2016 as Dasturji Khursheed Kaikobad Dastoor Day. The proclamation certificate was presented by Honorable Mr. Mike Laster, Council Member District J, City of Houston.

The Dasturji’s talk, accompanied by a Power Point presentation, was on the progress made in Udvada and the plans to improve its infrastructure. He started with the history behind the sacred Iransha Fire’s establishment in India, the bravery, dedication and sacrifices displayed by our forefathers to protect and preserve the fire for future generations. Dasturji also talked about the support and encouragement from India’s current Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Mody; to rejuvenate Udvada as a heritage place for pilgrimage and to improve accessibility. The talk was very informative and uplifting. It also enticed many in the audience to visit Udvada in the near future. Later that night, a dinner was hosted by Sanober & Aderbad Tamboli at their home, where many got to talk to Dasturji on one-on-one basis.

After spending a restful night at the home of Rustom & Yasmin Engineer. Dasturji paid a visit to Feroze & Shernaz Bhandara’s home. Feroze and Shernaz have pledged to donate an Atash Kadeh to the Houston Zarathushti Community. Dasturji provided some valuable input into the design and operation of the Atash Kadeh. We hope to continue to work with him as the project progresses. Later, a lunch was organized at Ervad Khushrav and Manek Nariman’s home. Dasturji addressed a group of about 12 Ervads including 4 young navars and answered many questions during an hour and a half long meeting. Dasturji’s message to continue to maintain peace and harmony in the community was very much appreciated.

Although, Dasturji Khursheed could only be with us for less than 24 hours, we all felt that a lot was accomplished. An official invitation to Dasturji was extended on behalf of the ZAH to come back for the opening of the Atash Kadeh. We at the ZAH hope to see Dasturji Khursheed visit us often in Houston.

HAVE YOU BOUGHT THE RAFFLE TICKET YET? HURRY! TIME IS RUNNING OUT
