Dadabhai Naoroji Event Postponed

The ZAH Library was planning to hold an event featuring Dinyar Patel, a recognized present-day scholar on Dadabhai's life and work. In the aftermath of hurricane Harvey, it was not possible to proceed with the preparation that was required for the event. The event is therefore canceled until further notice.

A Double Event on October 27

Last month, on Friday, September 22, Vehishta Kaikobad conducted a very successful Kid's Nite in the ZAH Library. The children were first introduced to the creation of the Shahnameh and its visual appreciation, followed by a dramatic narration from one of its epics. This was followed by a formal, step-by-step project in creating their own folio inspired by the Shahnameh illustrations. The children were shown the big illustrated gold-plated Shahnameh that we had also displayed during the last exhibition. The children were fascinated, and impressed us with some very insightful questions. The night ended with pizza and a treat!

Building on the success of this event, Vehishta will continue with this effort on Friday, October 27, again from 7:30 to 8:30 pm. Vehishta will continue with the Shahnameh theme with artwork, as last month they ran out of time. Since this has proved to be very interesting for the children, and also given us as a way to spark their interest in our history and their use of our library resources, we are planning to offer this on the last Friday of every month for now. The class is both, educational and entertaining, and each month's event will focus on a different age group and have age appropriate themes and activities

For adults, and for the parents bringing their children, we have a double treat. Teresa Russo, Professor of English at Toronto University, is keen on compiling Bapsi Sidhwa's letters and notes into a book she will edit. Teresa will be with us on the same day, October 27, to give a short talk on her project, followed by a panel discussion featuring her, Bapsi and Aban Rustomji. We are planning to start this event at 6:30 pm with socializing and light refreshments. The formal part will begin at 7 pm and end at 8 pm. This will be a first-of-its-kind evening featuring our famous author, Bapsi, that we are so proud of. Please put his date on your calendar and plan to support this event.

Youth Report

By Yazad Sidhwa – Treasurer, ZAH Youth Group

After a fun event at the Parks Youth Ranch last month, October is our month of giving back to the Community and it came together very well with our Gahambar day where the spirit is to sit together as a community, pray for the well being and have a meal. As y'all know, we conducted a very successful Blood Donation drive on October 1st where all our Community donors came forward to donate. We would like to thank each one of our donors for supporting us in our joint effort with the Gulf Coast Regional Blood Center (GCRBC), we greatly appreciate it.

The GCRBC supplied us with a Mobile Coach with 3 representatives to carry out the donation drive. Out of a total of 41 potential donors, 17 donors from ZAH successfully donated blood from 11am to 3pm. The other 24 were not able to because of travel or medical restrictions. The Gulf Coast Regional Staff was very happy with the turnout of the donors, said our community did very well and sent us a thank you note as seen below.

On her 18th birthday, Elizabeth happily danced the night away – something she wasn't able to do 10 years ago, while her arms and legs were temporarily paralyzed due to the side effects of chemotherapy. Thanks to donors, Elizabeth received multiple units of platelets over a four-year period and was able to successfully overcome brain and spine cancer.

Gulf Coast Regional Blood Center and area patients like Elizabeth, thank Zoroastrian Association of Houston for your blood drive. These donations will help patients like Elizabeth throughout our community and are greatly appreciated.

THANK YOU!

Hello Yazad,
I wanted to let you know how much we appreciate you hosting your drive. You had a good drive with 17 successful donors and two deferrals. I am hoping we can make this an annual drive for Zoroastrian Assoc. Thank you again for your continued commitment.

Brenda DeFrayne
Account Representative, Outside
Gulf Coast Regional Blood Center

Our next event will be in November which will be the annual Dallas lock-in during the Thanksgiving week and the details will be sent soon to all Youth Group kids and parents.

The Fasli Mehrgan and Maediozarem Gahambar was celebrated at the ZAH Center on Sunday, October 1, 2017 and was attended by estimated 243 persons (includes kids). The attendees thoroughly enjoyed the delicious Goat Meat Dhansak, kabobs and Kachubar/limboo for lunch prepared by our very own Chef Kairasp Laskhkari of Himalaya Restaurant. Everyone enjoyed the Trifle prepared by the kids who layered the fruit, cake, custard and jam syrup under the supervision of Nazneen Khumbatta. Gulab jamuns were also served for dessert.
